

Patrol Vessel First Mate

£32,982 - £35,645 + 7.5% Unsociable Hours Allowance for average 42 hours per week

A unique opportunity has arisen within the Authority's offshore team, based in Whitby, North Yorkshire.

North Eastern Inshore Fisheries and Conservation Authority is seeking to recruit a First Mate/Fishery Officer to support its seagoing operations. If successful you would become part of a closely knit team involved in the day to day management and operation of a 'state of the art' fisheries/patrol vessel.

Working under the direction of the Skipper and Deputy Chief Officer you would form an essential part of the crew assisting in the safe navigation and operation of a 26 m fisheries vessel, including acting as coxswain on a smaller 6.4 m RIB when required. In addition you will be expected to fully deputise for the skipper when required, including taking command of the vessel and managing all aspects of the offshore operational activity of the Authority. You should have an extensive command/watch keeping and deck work experience of fishing vessels or workboats.

Temporary Environmental & Scientific Officer

£21,074 for average 37 hours per week

This is a temporary contract offered initially for a fixed period of twelve months.

Based in Bridlington, East Yorkshire, routine duties include supporting the Authority's marine research and survey programmes, collating and analysing data and producing reports. The role also involves enforcing marine legislation and supporting operational activity throughout the Authority's district both onshore and offshore.

Local Government and North Eastern Inshore Fisheries and Conservation Authority terms of appointment and conditions of service apply.

Application forms and further details available at www.ne-ifca.gov.uk, email: ne-ifca@eastriding.gov.uk or contact Sarah Murray, Operational Support Manager, North Eastern Inshore Fisheries and Conservation Authority, Town Hall, Quay Road, Bridlington, East Riding of Yorkshire, YO16 4LP, tel (01482) 393515.

Closing date: Monday 18 June 2018

The Authority is pursuing a policy of Equal Opportunities in Employment.
